PETITIONING THE COURT

- ☐ To issue a warrant
☐ To issue a summons
☒ To amend petition filed on October 17, 2006

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
Viol. 1. "The defendant shall report to the probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month"	On May 26, 2006, Renthlis Crenshaw was released from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons. Mr. Crenshaw has failed to report to the probation officer and has failed to provide a written report during his supervision.
Viol. No. 2. " The defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment"	On June 6, 2006, Crenshaw began residing at 54 Cypress Road, Greenville, AL, with an individual named Manuel. Manuel was contacted and verified Crenshaw's residential status. On August 29, 2006, contact was made with Manuel and he advised Crenshaw moved out after three days and he did not know his whereabouts.

Viol. No 3. " The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance.

On December 15, 2006, a urine sample was obtained from Crenshaw and tested positive for the presence of cocaine and marijuana. Crenshaw admitted to smoking marijuana for the past two months and using cocaine on several occasions.

Viol. No 4. " The defendant shall refrain from the excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician.

On December 14, 2006, Crenshaw was arrested by deputies with the U.S. Marshals Service. During a search of his person, deputies located a pipe that is used for smoking cocaine base . The pipe was located in Crenshaw's pant pocket. According to deputies, there appeared to be cocaine residue in the pipe.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation: Crenshaw is currently detained in the Montgomery City Jail and his revocation hearing is scheduled for January 5, 2006. It is respectfully requested that he court consider violation number three and four at Crenshaw's revocation hearing.
